

STATE TENNESSEE	COUNTY Greene	TOWN OR VICINITY Tusculum
INDEX NUMBER TENN, 30. Tusculum, 1	MONUMENT Doak House
REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE	H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO. TENN-156	History - This 1818 house was the home of Dr. Samuel W. Doak, the founder of Tusculum College. Description - Two-story brick, in bad condition, with rectangular plan ("ell" addition mid-nineteenth century) and gable roof. References - None
PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS
PUBLISHED DRAWINGS
GPO 6-8369		   (over) 10-444 HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

3p
2d

Author of Card - James P. Noffsinger
Architect, National Park Service
120 South Third Street
Philadelphia6, Pa.
October 6, 1958